

Oswaldo Supino Trounces Kylie Minogue At Bt Digital Music Awards

Italian artist reaches a new record receiving more than 55,000 votes worldwide.

Oct. 18, 2010 - PRLog -- London, United Kingdom – October 18, 2010. Oswaldo Supino goes big at BT Digital Music Awards for the third consecutive year. In the “Best Official Web Site” category, Supino received more than 55,000 votes worldwide placing him on the number 11 spot.

BTDMA’s Official site posted the Top 20 artists for the “Best Official Web Site Category” listing Coldplay and Muse as the winner. Nevertheless, Oswaldo Supino remains the only Italian artist nominated to the awards surpassing pop star Kylie Minogue at #13.

Supino’s reaction was a heartfelt message to his fans: “I’m very happy today. This is the biggest demonstration of love and support from my fans. They did everything and I want to dedicate this beautiful moment to them and to all the other people that keeps on believing in me.”

With this year’s BTDA, Supino established another record continuing the momentum of his 2007 and 2008 results.

Oswaldo Supino will be releasing a new single in November 2010.
